

Wine Spectator Awards 91 Points to DNA Vineyards Pinot Noir 2021

Wine Spectator

DNA Vineyards is proud to have been awarded 91 points by Wine Spectator for the Russian River Valley Pinot Noir 2021 ($25) and featured at the top of the Top Values and Smart Buys lists, September 30, 2023, Wine Spectator Magazine.

Ripened under the mild sun and coastal influences of the Laguna Ridge Neighborhood of the acclaimed Russian River Valley, our home estate Pinot Noir marries ideal place with chosen variety. It embodies our pursuit of quality and a belief that fine wine should remain accessible. (Available for purchase at select retailers.)

Other accolades include:

- Double Gold: Los Angeles Invitational, 98 points
- Gold: Beverage Tasting Institute, 93 points
- Gold: North Coast Wine Challenge, 92 points

DNA Vineyards has been designing and crafting private label wines for national retailers for 20 years, with a focus on combining decades of experience with thousands of years of grapevines' evolving genetics to produce outstanding wines with incomparable price to quality ratios. We maintain vineyards in Sonoma and Mendocino Counties in California and contract with premium growers in the region to make our wines in local, state-of-the-art facilities.
